

Office of the Official Receiver in Bankruptcy,

ContraBURY 7th Jan'y 1893.

Dear Sir,

re G. R. Barber,

I am sorry I have not yet received Mr. Salutations herein, but I hope to do so on Monday. When I will at once communicate with you as to the guarantee for that as far as I am concerned nothing will be done to prejudice your right of distraint. The debtor informs me that the Rent due to them in respect of the Cottage is £10. Is this correct? Will you also kindly inform me the amount you claim for rent in respect of the other cottages. The debtor holds several pieces of land under an agreement from his father, under which agreement he is entitled to compensation for unexecuted improvements. He estimates the value of the fruit trees & bushes planted by him on this land to amount to £50. Do you admit this? Yours truly

Wm. J. G. Howell
