In the County Court of Kent

holden at Canterbury

IN BANKRUPTCY.

No. 1 of 1893

RE George Reeder Banker
Cannery Coys

In consideration of your forbearing to realize under the distress

~~which you have levied or caused to be levied~~ for to proceed with the distress which

Strike out words which are inapplicable.

you have threatened to levy, ~~or as the case may be~~ upon such goods of the above-named Debtor as are liable to a distress for rent in arrear due to you by upon the Cottage Garden at Broomfield such Debtor, I HEREBY UNDERTAKE (without prejudice to the rights of preferential Creditors under the Preferential Payments in Bankruptcy Act, 1888), in the event of my realizing such goods, or any part thereof, to treat the amount of money for which you are now legally entitled to distrain as a first charge on the net proceeds of any realization of such goods which may come into my hands, subject only to the rights of such preferential Creditors as aforesaid, and I HEREBY

UNDERTAKE, until a Trustee of the said Debtor's Estate has been duly appointed, not to do any act to prejudice your right of distress over such goods.
