Dear Sir

Re Trullage

Wound humbly enquire of our correspondence with

Mess Lush & Bellad, - also

Trullage ^{note} also enclosed. please show us a few discrepancies in them, and some of the items we shall certainly dispute the charges for. - It would be as well for us to have had an

with you respecting them -

We have an Auction

Sale of Furniture tomorrow

Tuesday, but if we cannot do so in time to give you a call at your usual office before you leave, will do so

I am very truly Yours
J. Hinds & Son.

Presume you have given the Trullage notice. - I wish no trouble for many reasons
