INLAND TELEGRAMS,

Dear Sirs,

Goods done at City Street Co^o Ltd

We have your letter of the 17th inst.

We see no help for it but to treat the items relating to the Gothic Cottage and Boatmen's Rooms as having been done to the order of Mr. Stephen Goods otherwise it will be necessary to plead separately as to these and in accordance with Mr. Fook's first opinion pay the amounts £13. 10. 0 and £5. 18. 4 into Court. The account for £13. 10. 0 Gothic Cottage was not amongst those first delivered. It appears for the first time amongst the accounts delivered in August 1891 and is made out against Bonds for Gothic Cottage 1891 June to outside painting &c as " per estimate £13. 10. 0. " Whose estimate was it? ^{to}

The item Boatmens Pooms £5. 18. 4 is as for £5. 13. 10 of it included in the ladyday accounts and is made out against Mr. Stephen Boids.

We propose delivering the defence as last sent to you unless we hear from you to the contrary on Tuesday morning.

Yours very truly,

John Church Roberts
