INLAND TELEGRAMS,
"ABBOTSFORD, LONDON."

Dear Sirs,

The Order giving us liberty to Rejoin was made on the 25th ulto and we delivered the Rejoinder on the following day the 26th. As you are aware Notice of Trial has been given, but the case is a very long distance off as yet. It would however be well for you to be getting the Brief ready for Trial and we shall be glad to have same as soon as possible.

Practically the Statement of facts which you sent up as Instructions for defence will form the Brief though it will we think need some little correction and amplification in one or two places. and the addition of proofs —

You need not trouble about the correspondence Affidavits Pleadings and Particulars. These we will put together in the usual way for Counsel. When we receive the Brief from you we will confer with Counsel as to Witnesses. The question as to whether both the Defendants must appear depends altogether as to the facts they can speak to. We shall no doubt see this when we have the Brief.

Yours very truly,

David Church Adams
