Dear Sir

City Stock Co. & Co. Ltd

We return kindest thanks for your opinion on Endmores as promised, your well intended assistance in the last paragraph.

Yours faithfully

The matter was being spread to you by telephone on Saturday was with reference to the former Rent, ^{now} a claim has been made by Mr. M. M. M. embodiment of the Lark's Quaker in respect of certain areas of Rent due from the above.

We wanted to ask as to whether we were liable to pay it, or if we could refer the claim up to the same of the Bankruptcy. To the Quaker - he evidently has been approached on the matter Hence the Lark Estate to us.

Yours faithfully,
S. Hinds & Son
