Take notice that by a certain Indenture dated the 2nd day of November 1876 the premises situate in the Parish of Easty in the County of Kent now in your occupation and held as Tenant under George Terry of Easty aforesaid Farmer (among others) duly conveyed and assured by way of Mortgage to the London and County Banking Company for securing the repayment of the monies therein mentioned; and that default has been made in payment of such monies in accordance with the provisions in the said Indenture contained and the same are still due and unpaid. And further take notice that you are to pay all rent now due, or hereafter to become due, from you for the said premises to the said London and County Banking Company, or their Agent or Agents, and not to any other person or persons whomsoever until further notice.
 Dated this 18th day of December 1880.

Manager of the London and County Banking Company of the London and County Banking Company and Agent for and on behalf of the said Company.
