LONDON, E.C. March 4 1881.

Dear Sirs re Ferry

Since your Mr. Gattens was here I have written to the above & later repeatedly but he has not been near me.

I sent to him yesterday by hand the several letters of queries for him to obtain Mr. Thompson's signature to them & as soon as I get them returned will let you have the same at once. Do not blame me for what I call a most unjustifiable delay to the creditors on the part of the Debtor.

Yours truly
H.A. Dubois
