Dear Sirs,

re Parkinson.

I have to thank you for your letter of the 19th instant to Mr A. Kaye Butterworth, whose Wife, I am sorry to say, passed away yesterday.

You will probably know that Mr Butterworth has not made the Proof of Debt, and I am under the impression he rather expected to hear ~~from~~ either from yourselves or Mr Parkinson as to whether it would be necessary for him to make the Proof. I do not see what would be gained, under the particular circumstances, by doing so, but I shall be glad if you will kindly write me.

Yours faithfully,

W. J. G. G. G.
