14th February, 1911.

Dear Sirs,

re Parkinson.

I am much obliged for your letter of the 13th instant. Mr Butterworth has just gone abroad, and will be away some time. I think the best thing will be for you to send me a short account and the small balance. This would keep the Parkinson account right, and, as soon as Mr Butterworth gets back I will consult him as to what should be done with the balance.

I hope Mr Parkinson got through his examination all right on Saturday last.

Yours faithfully,

Messrs Emmerson & Co.
Solicitors,
