9th March, 1911.

Dear Sirs,

re G. W. Parkinson.

Your letter of the 27th ult. was received when I was away at Assizes.

Mr Butterworth is abroad, but on his return I will obtain his instructions as to the £1-9-6. In the meantime, perhaps you would not mind sending me the letter Mr Parkinson received from the Official Receiver.

Yours faithfully,

J. W. Emerson
