Dear Sir,

Hinds v. Trollope.

We have looked into the matter mentioned to Mr. Baker on Saturday & find that we must enter an appearance before you can obtain judgment. We have therefore given the necessary instructions to our agents, Messrs. Hare & Co.

Mr. Trollope's difficulties with the Bank & other creditors make it impossible for him to pay down any part of the sum owing to your client. He is, however, willing that Mr. Hinds should take all the rents of the property included in the mortgage, and that the balance received after payment of the ~~principal~~ ~~or~~ interest should be applied towards the reduction of the principal. With regard to the brickfield, workshop & horse house, our client would pay a fair occupation rent to be agreed on between Mr. Hinds & himself - say £100 a year by quarterly instalments.

Yours truly

Taylor & Hardman
