Walmer, 19th Nov 1890

Messrs Eumerton & Sandwich.

Dear Sir
re Grolope

Referring to your letter in this matter. We have seen Mr Butterfield who as you are aware is arranging matters on Grolope's behalf with ourselves & the Bank. He has agreed to the terms of your letter to Messrs Taylor & Hardman, with the exception of 2 points which are: 1st with regard to your <sup>TRE 44</sup> getting a judgment against him. he wishes us not to do this, as Grolope has several contracts in prospect and he is afraid if it became known it would seriously injure his trade credit; we promised him to withdraw from doing this. subject to your opinion that it would not affect us, in the proposed arrangement.

2nd That the undertaking to be given by him as to accepting his life. should not apply beyond the amount to cover any balance due for interest, the £100 agreement and also Royalty on Drills. We do not think we can reasonably Expect more, and we estimate that with this arrangement it will enable us to credit about £80 per annum off the principal.

3rd The Royalty on Drills to be 1% per 1000, and he shall make us a return of all that are made

If you see no objection to our agreeing to these terms, you might advise Taylor and Handman of such and if possible arrange for the Agreement. & matters to be settled at your office on Tuesday

Yours faithfully

J. Handman
