

TAYLOR & HARDMAN,
SOLICITORS.

48 & 5, Park Street,

AND AT WALMER
AND SANDWICH.

Deal.

Dear Sir,

19 Nov<sup>r</sup> 1890

Hinds v. Trollope.

WE communicated the contents of your letter of the 17th instant to our client, ~~we~~ are now given to understand that Mess<sup>rs</sup> Hinds & Trollope have agreed to the proposals with several modifications.

According to our instructions the modifications are as follows:-

Clause 1 to be omitted & the following to be substituted for it-

- " The plaintiff to take no further
- " steps in the action now pending
- " & to withdraw therefrom upon the
- " defendant signifying his assent to
- " the terms of this letter.

Clause 5. To read as follows:-

- " Dft to pay p<sup>ty</sup> a royalty of 1/- on
- " Every 1000 bricks turned out, the
- " amount to be credited" <sup>s</sup> =

Clause 6 Add the following words:-

- " until an amount has been
- " credited sufficient to cover any
- " balance that may be then due to

TRD 35

- " the p<sup>ty</sup> for interest or for occupation
- " ~~sent~~ as mentioned in clause 4, or
- " for royalties on bricks as mentioned
- " in clause 5, and any balance
- " then remaining shall be paid by
- " the p<sup>ty</sup> to the dft in the ordinary
- " way.

Clause 7 Add after the words " general annual account" -

- " subject to the provisions of clause 6.

WE expect to conclude a satisfactory arrangement with the Bank in a day or two, & should be prepared to complete the Agreement at your Deal office on Tuesday next, if convenient to you.

WE would suggest that the letter as modified should be written out & signed by both parties with a memorandum of assent.

Yours truly
Taylor & Hardman

Mess<sup>rs</sup> Emerson & Co.

Hinds & Ralph J. J.