Dear Sir

We are in receipt of your letter of yesterday.

We have made further inquiries as to the £10 arrears of Rent which you claim and Mr Irving has sent us a copy of his letter to your Solicitors of the 29th Feb 1892 of which we enclose a copy herewith.

This shows that the amount to Christmas was paid by Mr Irving to Mr Trollope. We paid the rent to March to you and the £1. to June is outstanding.

We shall be glad to know if you agree with this as our clients are not disposed to pay £10 beyond the £5 for the privilege of leaving the Bricks on the land and if

July 8th
you object we will have them removed at once.

Yours truly
