Dear Sirs

re Gollop & Mudd

We are in receipt of your letter enclosing no extract from the Mortgage deeds -

We have not yet received a catalogue of the properties proposed to be offered for sale.

But we shall no doubt do so to-morrow morning.

In the meantime, with your please, let us know what properties, you claim, are comprised in your clients security. We will advise the trustees to withdraw from the sale all lots to which your clients are entitled.

With regard to your charges we defer sending you a cheque for the present as we doubt further costs will be incurred.

Yours faithfully

Ward, Perkins & McKay

Messrs. Emmerson & Co.
