INLAND TELEGRAMS,
"ABBOTSFORD, LONDON."

Dear Sirs,

Hinds & Inollope
Bankrupts.

We have your letter of yesterday's date. We do not possibly see how we can send you even in outline the draft of an Affidavit. We do not know what the facts are, nor how the accounts stand, nor what your Client wishes to do. Perhaps when we get the documents and the information we have asked for we shall be able to do so and it may well be that no Affidavit will be necessary at all, but we must have all the facts here in order that Counsel may deal with the matter properly.

The Notice will no doubt be served in London.

Yours very truly,

Geo. Church & Adams
