

WARD, PERKS & M^{rs} KAY,

TELEPHONE NO 1427.

72
85, Gracechurch Street,
E.C.

18th December 1891

Dear Sirs,

re Envelope

We are in receipt of your letter.

We thought it better to send the draft to you in the first instance having regard to the pending arrangement.

We shall not of course proceed with the appointment for the 24th instant and you will perhaps kindly accept this letter as formal notice to that effect. We have written Messrs Prior Church & Adams on the matter.

We shall be glad to receive draft assignment for payment in accordance with the proposals made at our interview.

Yours faithfully

Ward, Perks & Kay

Messrs Emmerson & Co.

107, Sandhurst
Kent.